

Co-op Housing Federation of BC Fall Education Conference

October 28, 2017 – Westin Wall Centre, Richmond

CALL FOR WORKSHOP PROPOSALS

The Co-operative Housing Federation of BC (CHF BC) is a co-operative membership association made up of housing co-ops and supporting organizations in British Columbia. Our mission is to unite, represent and serve our members in a thriving co-operative housing movement. There are more than 260 non-profit housing co-ops in BC, with over 14,500 households. Most of these housing co-ops are members of our association.

The purpose of our education program is to support these members in the achievement of the highest standards of sound management, good governance and principled leadership within healthy communities. Our bi-annual (spring and fall) education conferences contribute to this with a day of workshops and networking to challenge and inspire delegates who either live in, or provide services to, housing co-ops.

In order to expose our membership to emerging issues and new ideas, and to develop new initiatives, we are reaching out to the wider housing, social and non-profit community sector with an invitation to submit a workshop proposal to be part of our fall education conference in Richmond on October 28, 2017.

Criteria

Workshops should:

- Run for the entire time block but not run over time
- Be suited for a minimum of eight, and a maximum of forty participants
- Be relevant to the housing co-op sector
- Be designed for an adult audience and allow for participant interaction and questions
- Offer innovative ideas
- Include strategies to help participants share their learning on their return to their communities
