

Call for Nominations: CHF BC's Century of Co-operation Award

CHF BC's Aging in Place Committee is seeking nominations for the Century of Co-operation Award.

Members living in a CHF BC member co-op will be eligible if their years of age plus the length of time living in co-op housing adds up to 100 or more. Members who have already received this award are not eligible.

Are you or do you know a potential candidate who would be eligible for this honour?

Here's how to calculate if you or another member would qualify for this award:

Member's age + length of time living in co-op housing (current co-op or other co-op) = 100 (or more).

For example, an 80 year old who has lived in co-op housing for 22 years qualifies with a total of 102 years.
