

2023

FALL EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Navigating the future landscape of co-op living

Saturday
October 14
9 am - 4 pm

The Westin Wall Centre
Vancouver Airport

ONLINE SESSIONS

Future Housing Challenges (and how to tackle them cooperatively)

What are some of the big challenges facing housing co-ops over the coming years and how should they be addressed? Join us to explore some challenges facing housing co-ops and how we can effectively take a co-operative approach to come up with practical solutions with the help of various online interactive tools.

Digital Collaboration, Artificial Intelligence and the Cloud: Challenges and Opportunities

Technology challenged or not, this session will help you to use technology for the benefit of all. You'll leave energized and equipped with clear principles and practical wisdom.

MORNING PLENARY

In the ever-changing world of housing management, a panel of co-op members will share emerging trends and how they are navigating roadblocks by forward-thinking preparations for the future. This engaging discussion will set the tone for the conference, offering wisdom gained from experience and insights into what might be ahead for your co-op.

AFTERNOON PLENARY

Step into a transformative afternoon plenary session 'Mindful Futurism.' This unique opportunity invites you to dwell a little longer in the realm between action and reaction as we embark on a collective mission to shape a future centered on community care and belonging.

HYBRID SESSIONS

Ask the Experts

A panel of sector experts answer questions around co-op law, insurance, and property management. Learn from the situations housing co-ops are facing and hear how our experts would approach these challenging questions.

Emergency Preparedness

In a rapidly changing world marked by unforeseen crises, the importance of emergency preparedness has never been clearer. Join us for a panel discussion that delves into relevant strategies and innovations.

Co-ops Responding to Life Changes (a legal perspective)

Housing co-ops may be where an individual grows up, raises children and ages. Explore from a legal perspective all the stages of life and how co-ops respond to them.

IN PERSON SESSIONS

Indigenous Anti-Racism: From Awareness to Action

This session, largely designed for non-Indigenous people, examines our ongoing colonial relationship. Participants explore how colonial patterns and narratives were developed, informing all spaces, including within housing co-op systems.

Board Succession and Recruitment

How can housing co-ops build and grow leaders from within their community? Explore why elevating your co-op's governance capacity starts with board succession planning and a priority for diverse perspectives from your co-op's decision makers.

Finding Joy in Climate Solutions

This interactive workshop helps participants to explore how they can advance climate solutions in a way that is meaningful, effective, and personally sustainable.

Register

Scan the QR code or visit chf.bc.ca

Pricing

$160 in person
$80 half day or online

Questions?

education@chf.bc.ca
1-877-384-9444

